Women's Association News

Dear Ladies,

Thank you again for our very successful Pre-Holiday Shopping Spree luncheon in October. Thanks to generous donations and enthusiastic attendees we will be able to make a nice donation to the PSR Children's Language Center. We had eight gracious vendors with diverse and lovely items for sale, opportunity drawings, and silent auctions to round out our afternoon. To top off the event, we feasted on a delicious lunch prepared by our very own Scottish Rite Chef, Eusebio Sanchez.

As you know, behind every successful event, there are innumerable faithful hardworking ladies who assist in the preparations. A group of ladies came to the PSR the day before to decorate the tables and to finish wrapping the opportunity baskets and, of course, then to return on Saturday in support of the occasion. Thank you everyone!

Friday, November 6th, at the PSR Stated meeting all ladies are welcome to join the Women's group upstairs on the third floor (button #2 on the elevator) at 6 p.m. while the men are in their Stated meeting downstairs. Then 6:30 ish is social time before dinner in the dining room, with dinner at 7 p.m.

Hope to see you soon.

A Time to Give

We now find our calendar well into the holiday season, and I hope it will be one of the best ever. In November, we find ourselves reflecting on Thanksgiving and all the blessings we have received during the past year. Not every day may have been "the best day ever", but hopefully the year has been over all in the positive.

At this time, we not only reflect upon our own welfare, but those who may be less fortunate than we are. We, in the gentle Craft, often think about those in need because Charity is among our basic tenants. As such, we tend to give just a little more.

Americans as a nation contribute more to philanthropy than any other country in the world. According to "Giving USA", a charitable giving statistics foundation, Americans gave a record $358.38 billion to various charities in 2014. That's an average of $2,974 per household to over 1.5 million charitable organizations in the U.S. Also, nearly 65 million adults volunteered 7.9 billion hours of service worth an estimated $175 billion. That breaks down to about $22.55 per person per hour.

Those stats are amazing! But we as Freemasons do even more. We belong to so many masonic organizations and each one supports some philanthropic cause. We are constantly giving more. How do we do it? I like to think it's through our obligation and our commitment to do what is right and help our fellow man.

In this time of Thanksgiving, I ask that you continue to practice your vows. Wither it is the Almoner's fund, the Childhood Language Center, the Cathedral fund, the Masonic Homes, The Eye Institute, Shrine Hospitals, pick one or pick them all, I thank you! Have a warm and blessed holiday season.
