Greetings Brethren,

As the Valley of Pasadena extends a warm welcome to Illustrious Frank Loui, 33° Sovereign Grand Inspector General in the Orient of California, we find ourselves reflecting on the profound significance of this visit, particularly as it coincides with the Fourth of July celebrations. This moment offers a unique opportunity to honor the rich heritage of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry and to celebrate the values of liberty, brotherhood, and education that both the holiday and the Masonic tradition uphold.

Illustrious Frank Loui's presence in Pasadena is a testament to his distinguished career and unwavering dedication to Freemasonry. As Sovereign Grand Inspector General, Frank Loui has exemplified leadership, integrity, and a deep commitment to the Masonic principles of wisdom, strength, and beauty. His visit serves as an inspiration to Masons and the broader community alike, reminding us of the enduring relevance of these principles in our daily lives.

Under Frank Loui's guidance, the Scottish Rite in California has flourished, emphasizing the importance of Masonic education, charitable endeavors, and the fostering of brotherly love. His visit to Pasadena is not just a ceremonial occasion but a moment to engage with these ideals, to reflect on their importance, and to reinvigorate our collective commitment to the betterment of society.

The Fourth of July stands as a beacon of freedom and independence, a day when Americans come together to celebrate the birth of their nation. This celebration is deeply intertwined with Masonic values, as many of the Founding Fathers were themselves Freemasons. Their vision of a nation built on the principles of liberty, equality, and justice resonates with the core tenets of the Scottish Rite.

The Scottish Rite, known for its intricate degrees and profound philosophical teachings, encourages members to strive for personal and intellectual growth. This pursuit of knowledge and moral uprightness is mirrored in the spirit of the Fourth of July, which honors the pursuit of a just and enlightened society. As we welcome Illustrious Frank Loui, we are reminded of the shared heritage that binds us and the collective journey towards greater understanding and unity.

Pasadena, with its rich cultural history and vibrant community, provides an ideal setting for this celebration. The local Scottish Rite bodies will undoubtedly host events that blend the festive spirit of Independence Day with the solemnity and reflection characteristic of Masonic gatherings. These events might include public lectures on the historical connections between Freemasonry and American independence, community service projects, and gatherings that reinforce the bonds of brotherhood.

Illustrious Frank Loui's visit presents an opportunity for Masons in Pasadena to showcase their dedication to these values. It is a chance to engage with the community, to educate and inspire, and to demonstrate the positive impact of Masonic principles in action. The Fourth of July serves as a poignant backdrop for this celebration, highlighting the alignment between the ideals of the nation and those of the Scottish Rite.

As we welcome Illustrious Frank Loui, we also look to the future, considering how the lessons of the past and the challenges of the present can shape a brighter tomorrow. The Scottish Rite, with its emphasis on continuous learning and ethical leadership, offers a roadmap for this journey. Under Loui's leadership, we can anticipate continued growth and a renewed focus on the core Masonic values that guide us.

This visit is an invitation to all Masons and members of the community to recommit to these values, to seek knowledge, to support one another, and to contribute to the greater good. It is a reminder that the principles celebrated on the Fourth of July—liberty, equality, and justice—are not just historical ideals but living commitments that we must uphold every day.

The Valley of Pasadena is honored to welcome Illustrious Frank Loui, Sovereign Grand Inspector General in the Orient of California, during this momentous time. His visit, coinciding with the Fourth of July celebrations, offers a unique opportunity to reflect on the intertwined legacies of American independence and Masonic heritage. As we celebrate this occasion, let us remember the values that bind us, the lessons that guide us, and the vision for a brighter future that inspires us all.

Commander

Council of Kadosh

My brothers,

This being my second message as the Commander of Council of Kadosh, I will continue with the ongoing theme which I introduced in my first message, i.e., the influence of Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. In my first message, I discussed the importance of Scottish Rite Degrees; today, I will focus on how the Degrees benefit our Fraternity in general.

As we all know, Freemasonry does not necessarily need the Scottish Rite Degrees to function, as the core principles and structure of Freemasonry are rooted in the three foundational Degrees of Blue Lodge Masonry. Without being a member of the Scottish Rite, a Mason can still be a valuable member of the Fraternity and provide valuable service to the community. However, the Scottish Rite Degrees play a significant role in enriching and expanding the Masonic experience for those who seek deeper knowledge and more profound engagement with Masonic teachings. Here are three main reasons why I believe the Scottish Rite Degrees are valuable for our Fraternity:

First, the Scottish Rite Degrees provide deeper insights into Masonic philosophy, symbolism, and morality. The degrees of the Scottish Rite are thus designed to impart more advanced moral and ethical lessons through allegory and symbolism. Each Degree teaches specific principles that encourage members to lead virtuous lives and uphold higher moral standards. Second, the Scottish Rite delves into historical and philosophical contexts that enrich our overall understanding of the broader human quest for knowledge and truth. This helps members appreciate the historical roots and intellectual heritage of Freemasonry. Through its elaborate and dramatic rituals, the Scottish Rite provides members with a profound and engaging experience that reinforces the teachings of the Degrees.

Third, the Scottish Rite fosters a strong sense of community and brotherhood among its members. Through meetings, events, charitable activities, and collaborative efforts, Scottish Rite Masons form stronger and more lasting bonds and support each other in their personal and professional lives. By participating in the Scottish Rite, members have opportunities for intellectual growth and personal development. The teachings and activities encourage critical thinking, self-reflection, and a commitment to lifelong learning. Furthermore, the Scottish Rite emphasizes the importance of leadership and service, both within the Masonic fraternity and in the wider community. Members are encouraged to take on leadership roles and to apply Masonic principles in their daily lives.

Thus, the Scottish Rite is important for Freemasonry because it provides advanced education, moral and ethical instruction, rich historical and philosophical context, and opportunities for personal growth and community service. These aspects contribute to the overall mission of Freemasonry to promote enlightenment, virtue, and brotherhood among its members.

These reasons explain and justify why we should introduce the Scottish Rite, promote its teachings, and encourage fellow Masons to join. While all Masonic concordant bodies and organizations offer valuable teachings and present tremendous benefits to their members, the Scottish Rite is unique due to its structure, teachings, and influence.

I submit to you, my brothers, that we have a responsibility, not only to ourselves but to our fraternity in general, to encourage participation in the Scottish Rite. Be an ambassador of the Scottish Rite and invite and encourage Masons to take their Masonic journey to new heights by joining the Scottish Rite, and to connect with a network of brothers who are committed to the highest ideals of Freemasonry.

The Good Old Summertime

The weather is heating up. The odor of outdoor Bar-B-Que fills the air. Hawaiian shirts are the uniform of the day. Families are going on well-deserved vacations. And the lazy days of summer are upon us. But we at the Scottish Rite are just as busy as ever.

The second round of our Rees Padfield Reunion is underway with thirty-eight candidates to receive the degrees of the Chapter of Rose Croix. The degree teams are working hard, and I hope that you will take advantage of the opportunity to support your brother masons as they present these degrees. Remember, reunions are not just for the candidates, they are for all of us to re-live and to learn from.

The remodeling of the dining room is about to commence, marking the last phase of the five-year remodel plan. Once completed, we will be ready for the 100th anniversary of our Pasadena home. A place we can all be proud of. A place we will be pleased and delighted to pass on to future generations of Scottish Rite Masons. A shining jewel in our community for all to use and admire.

Speaking of which, the 100th anniversary committee is hard at work preparing for the celebration in February 2025. If you are interested in serving on the committee, please contact the committee chair, Honorable Jeff Yeats. After all, "many hands make light work!"

Summer is also the time we welcome our Sovereign Grand Inspector General, Illustrious Frank Loui, 33° and his boss Jeanie. They will grace our Valley at the July dinner and stated meeting. Please come out, enjoy a wonderful meal and hear the inspiring words of our S.G.I.G. I can guarantee Illustrious Loui will not bore us with a long-winded speech. He is a man of few words but can make a powerful impact when he has something to say.

Lastly, remember to make your dinner reservations for July and August and do not forget to go through your closet to find that Hawaiian shirt you want to show off. It is just not summer if you show up in a suit and tie. After all, this is Southern California. We have an image to maintain.

Have a wonderful summer and we will see you at the Rite.

A Sponsor's Responsibility

For every petitioner for the degrees of Scottish Rite Degrees there is a Scottish Rite Mason who is his sponsor on whom rests the responsibility for proper training of the petitioner. The Scottish Rite Mason who signs the petition has a responsibility that does not end with their signature on the petition. If you invited a guest to a gathering at your home, you make sure that he meets all of your guest and is made welcome and comfortable. Isn't the man whom you recommend Scottish Rite Freemasonry entitled to the same courtesy? As his sponsor, is it not your duty to assist him with his work and take an interest in his progress? It seems to us that it is, and that you should see to it that he fully understands the fine lessons of our degrees. If you recommend a man to the Scottish Rite, satisfy yourself that he is receiving that for which you recommended him. To do so is but a Masonic courtesy and it is your duty as a Scottish Rite Mason.

Library Treasures.

Saint John the Baptist and John the Evangelist are known as the patron saints of Freemasonry. But why?

By John L. Cooper, PGM.

Freemasonry has many unexplained mysteries in its ritual, one of which is the reference to the “Holy Saints John.” It comes in the monitorial lecture of the Entered Apprentice degree. Candidates are told that Masonic lodges are dedicated to Saint John the Baptist and Saint John the Evangelist. Together, they represent the patron saints of Freemasonry.

The opening words of the Gospel of St. John are: “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.”

We know that in the 17th and 18th century, the “Mason Word” was a very important secret given to the newly obligated Mason.

The “Mason Word” gave members of the fraternity access to all the privileges of Freemasonry. For “operative” stonemasons, that included access to work. The Gospel of St. John may have been chosen for the obligation because of the symbolic connection between the “Mason Word” and the “Word” in the opening verse of the gospel.

This connection was so important that Masons in that era were sometimes referred to as “St. John’s Masons.” In some tilers’ registers from the 18th century, visitors would put “St. John’s Mason” after their name. From that, we can extrapolate that the connection to the “Holy Saints John” in the Masonic ritual originated with St. John the Evangelist. And we can assume that the reference to St. John the Baptist as the second patron saint of Freemasonry came later. None of this can be proven, of course.

These “St. John’s Masons” did not leave us any records about why they adopted that name, or why they adopted the two Johns as the patron saints of Freemasonry. But I think this is as good a guess as any.

John L. Cooper III served as Grand Master of the Masonic Grand Lodge of California in 2013–2014. He had previously served as Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge for seventeen years, retiring in 2008. He has also served as senior councilor of the Southern California DeMolay Association and is an honorary member of the International Supreme Council. Ph.D. in Education from Claremont Graduate University in Claremont, California, and spent 25 years in public school teaching and administration. Much of his Masonic career has involved researching and writing on the history and symbolism of Freemasonry.

Gentlemen, thank you for sharing this newsletter with your lady

Dear Ladies,

Summer has indeed arrived with many warm to hot days mixed with relaxed schedules, and hopefully some fun getaways with family and friends.

The Scottish Rite meetings, of course, will continue through the summer as usual. In July there will be a special visitation evening for Frank Loui and In August there will be the coveted presentation for the recipient of the Roy Henvile Award recognizing this year's very outstanding Scottish Rite member. Come see who will receive this great honor!

The next newsletter will return in September. The attire for the summer is casual. The ladies will, as usual, meet upstairs in our lovely lounge after dinner, while the men attend their business meeting.

Be safe, be healthy, and hope you all enjoy your summer!

Sincerely,

Lynda Lockhart, President
